

SAVE THE DATE: TACKLING DISCRIMINATION OF WOMEN AND GIRLS WITH DISABILITIES IN THE 2030 AGENDA

8th December 2016 | 10:00h to 12:00h | Rue Montoyer 47, 1000 Brussels

The International Disability and Development Consortium (IDDC) celebrates the International Day of Persons with Disabilities by organising a conference focused on how to tackle multiple discrimination for women and girls with disabilities in the framework of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

The panel discussion will be based on the expertise of women working in the field of gender and development. Afterwards there is the opportunity for a discussion with the audience.

Sign language interpretation and velotype will be provided and coffee will be served. We are looking forward to welcoming you!

Join us in twitter #EDDW16

Registration: alba.gonzalez@cbm.org